02 Course: Processing and Handling of Medications and Medication Orders

Modality: Self-Paced Learning

Duration:

This course develops essential professional skills for pharmacy technicians, including ethical conduct, effective communication, active listening, teamwork, customer service, conflict resolution, problem-solving, and professional self-management.

Course Outline: