

13 Course: Health Technology Policy & Regulation

Modality: Self-Paced Learning

Duration:

Health Technology Policy & Regulation is an online course that provides comprehensive knowledge and understanding of the policies and regulations governing health technologies. Explore the principles, frameworks, and influencing factors involved in shaping effective policies and regulations to ensure safe, ethical, and efficient implementation of health technologies.