

Healthcare Technology Planning & Acquisition

Modality: Self-Paced Learning

Duration:

The online course "Healthcare Technology Planning & Acquisition" provides a comprehensive understanding of the processes and strategies involved in planning and acquiring healthcare technologies. Participants will learn essential skills and best practices to effectively manage technology procurement, ensuring optimal integration and functionality within healthcare settings.