

02 Course: Medical Records and Insurance

Modality: Self-Paced Learning

Duration:

The course "Medical Records and Insurance" provides students with comprehensive knowledge and skills to effectively manage and maintain accurate medical records, navigate insurance systems, and ensure compliance with legal and ethical standards in healthcare documentation and reimbursement processes. Students gain practical insights into coding, billing, claims processing, and privacy regulations, equipping them to contribute to efficient healthcare administration and financial management.

Course Outline: