

Course 7 - Pacemaker Rhythms

Modality: Self-Paced Learning

Duration:

The course on "Pacemaker Rhythms" provides students with an in-depth understanding of the electrocardiographic (ECG) characteristics and clinical significance of cardiac rhythms associated with pacemaker devices. This course explores the various types of pacemaker rhythms, including those resulting from single-chamber and dual-chamber pacemakers, and their implications for patient management.