

Course 8 - Details of Physician Charting

Modality: Self-Paced Learning

Duration:

The course on "Details of Physician Charting" focuses on equipping physicians with the necessary knowledge and skills to effectively document patient encounters and medical information in electronic health record (EHR) systems. This course is essential for physicians to accurately capture and communicate patient care information, maintain comprehensive medical records, and support clinical decision-making processes.